

WILTON HERITAGE COMMISSION MINUTES FOR JUNE 28, 2016

The meeting was called to order on June 28 at 7 p.m. in the historic rooms of the Wilton Public and Gregg Free Library. Present were Stanley Young, David Potter, Michael Dell'Orto, and Nancy Clark.

The May minutes were read and accepted as written. The Treasurer reported no money had been spent.

Ten copies in all of the Tour of Wilton brochure were sold at the Strawberry Festival and at the downtown SummerFest event.

The Frog Pond was proposed as a site for a sign.

The upcoming December program on the Fires of Downtown Wilton was discussed. Research is ongoing in preparation.

The shorter text for the downtown mills sign was approved.

The Oral History projects continues. Jane Bergeron will be interviewed on a different subject in the near future.

Heritage Commission members decided not to meet in July unless some specific problem or necessity arose.

The meeting adjourned at 7:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Clark, Secretary
